

BEATS ON THE STREET

2019 BSAF Beats on the Street Application

This year marks the introduction of an unaccompanied vocal ensemble competition at the Black Swamp Arts Festival! We are looking for teams of talented student artists (3 to 10 high school students per team) to compete in this year's competition. Each team has five minutes to set up and perform their chosen piece. First, Second and Third place teams will win monetary prizes for their school's music department. ($500, $250, $100)

This year, the theme is: FAMILY

Application deadline is Saturday, September 1, 2019. Limited space available, the sooner you apply the better! The date of the event is September 7, 2019. The time period is from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., with judging immediately after. Performance will be outside near Chalk Walk. Space will be available in the event of rain. Each team has 5 minutes to stage and perform their chosen piece. Forms should be filled out completely AND legibly so we can send instructions to participants. Applicants must submit their chosen song or arrangement with the application. The BSAF reserves the right to reject proposed songs or arrangements it deems objectionable or inappropriate. Return all applications to Black Swamp Arts Festival Attn: Tom Perez, PO BOX 532, Bowling Green, Ohio 43402, or Tperez43402@yahoo.com
